

CARISSA PHELPS

CEO, Runaway Girl, Inc., EHN Board Member, Survivor Leader, Attorney

Carissa Phelps is CEO of Runaway Girl, Inc. and a respected advocate in the anti-human trafficking community. She holds both a Juris Doctorate from UCLA School of Law and an MBA from UCLA Anderson. As a survivor who has rewritten her narrative on her terms, Carissa exemplifies the transformative power of education and employment. As a leader in the anti-human trafficking movement for over a decade she has helped to bring global and local attention to the issue of human trafficking, and has been part of significant changes in legislation, policies, and protocols to improve responses to human trafficking. Carissa is the author of Runaway Girl: Escaping Life on the Streets One Helping Hand at a Time (Viking 2012), her award-winning memoir. In 2008, she also co-produced, CARISSA, and award-winning, short documentary film about her life.

SPECIAL GUEST

EMPOWERMENT SPEAKER SERIES!

WEDNESDAY, 6/24/2020

8:00PM EST / WEBINAR, REGISTRATION REQUIRED

EMPOWER HER NETWORK IS LAUNCHING AN EMPOWERMENT SPEAKER SERIES!

This quarterly series will welcome our entire EHN community (members, advocates, partners, alumni) to gather together and focus on empowered journeys taken by leaders in the anti-trafficking movement. The purpose is to inspire and strengthen connections between EHN members and their allies. Members and alumni will also be invited back monthly for members only round tables with survivor leaders who work in various fields and across industries. Spanish translated provided.

Join Empower Her Network and Carissa Phelps for our inaugural speaker series.

To register, please visit our website at empowerhernetwork.org/speakerseries